Bremer Appeal

ANNAPOLIS (AP)—Lawyers for Arthur Herman Bremer have started a formal appeal of his conviction in Prince George's County Circuit Court for wounding of Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace and three other persons last May in Laurel.

The appeal brief was entered by Benjamin Lipsitz and his daughter, Ellie, following receipt by the state Court of Special Appeals of the 11 volumes of transcript from the Circuit Court trial, which produced a 53-year prison sentence.

The attorneys previously had said they would appeal the conviction if money could be raised to make a necessary copy of the transcript.

Bremer earlier said he was trying to sell his diary to raise the money. Miss Lipsitz said that no publication rights had been granted but she declined to say where the defense had raised the estimated $2,000 needed to process the transcript.
